

This Ole House

key:D, artist:Shakin' Stevens writer:Stuart Hamblen

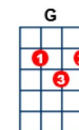

This ole [D] house once knew his children; this ole [G] house once knew a wife;
This ole [A] house was home and comfort as they [D] fought the storms of life.
This old [D] house once rang with laughter; this old [G] house heard many shouts;
Now it [A] trembles in the darkness when the lightnin' walks a [D] bout.

[D] Ain't a-gonna [G] need this house no longer, ain't a-gonna [D] need this house no more;
Ain't got [A] time to fix the shingles, ain't got [D] time to fix the floor,
Ain't got [G] time to oil the hinges nor to [D] mend the window panes;
Ain't a-gonna [A] need this house no longer it's a-gettin' ready to meet the [D] saints.

[D] This ole [D] house is a-gettin' shaky, this ole [G] house is a-gettin' old;
This ole [A] house lets in the rain, this ole [D] house lets in the cold.
Oh, my [D] knees are a-gettin' chilly, but I [G] feel no fear nor pain,
'Cause I [A] see an angel peekin' through a broken window [D] pane.

[D] Ain't a-gonna [G] need this house no longer, ain't a-gonna [D] need this house no more;
Ain't got [A] time to fix the shingles, ain't got [D] time to fix the floor,
Ain't got [G] time to oil the hinges nor to [D] mend the window panes;
Ain't a-gonna [A] need this house no longer it's a-gettin' ready to meet the [D] saints.

[D] This ole [D] house is afraid of thunder, this ole [G] house is afraid of storms,
This ole [A] house just groans and trembles when the [D] night wind flings its arms
This ole [D] house is getting feeble, this ole [G] house is needing paint
Just like [A] me it's tired out but it's a-gettin' ready to meet the [D] saints.

[D] Ain't a-gonna [G] need this house no longer, ain't a-gonna [D] need this house no more;
Ain't got [A] time to fix the shingles, ain't got [D] time to fix the floor,
Ain't got [G] time to oil the hinges nor to [D] mend the window panes;
Ain't a-gonna [A] need this house no longer it's a-gettin' ready to meet the [D] saints.

[D] Ain't a-gonna [G] need this house no longer, ain't a-gonna [D] need this house no more;
Ain't got [A] time to fix the shingles, ain't got [D] time to fix the floor,
Ain't got [G] time to oil the hinges nor to [D] mend the window panes;
Ain't a-gonna [A] need this house no longer I'm a-gettin' ready to meet the [D] saints.
