

Trustee Code of Conduct for Newcastle u3a

Introduction

A Trustee code of conduct is an agreement between the organisation and the individual committee member which spells out the standards of behaviour expected from Trustees.

Current Trustees should be asked to accept it and new Trustees should be advised of the code as soon as they join the committee and formally asked to accept it. The acceptance should be minuted.

Purpose

This model Trustee Code of Conduct outlines the expected standard of behaviour from Trustees in performance of their role.

Scope

Relevant to all u3as in England and Wales.

Trustee Code of Conduct

- Newcastle has adopted a Trustee Code of Conduct which is an agreement between Newcastle u3a and individual executive committee members which clarifies the standard of behaviour expected in the performance of their role.
- Newcastle u3a Trustees must work together as a team and are collectively responsible for controlling the management and administration of the u3a.
- Trustees should make themselves aware of guidance from the Charity Commission .
- Trustees must comply with charity law (as required by the relevant regulatory authority).
- Trustees are expected to know, follow and promote the Principles of the u3a Movement (available on the u3a website).
- Trustees must always act in the best interests of Newcastle u3a and the u3a movement, strive to uphold its reputation and never do anything which could bring the u3a or the u3a movement into disrepute or expose it to undue risk.
- Trustees must use Newcastle u3a's resources responsibly and only to further its stated charitable purpose.

- Trustees are expected to reflect the current organisational policy of Newcastle u3a, regardless of whether it conflicts with their personal views.
- Trustees are expected to abide by Newcastle's u3a's governance procedures and practices.
- Trustees must never derive any pecuniary benefit (including benefits in kind) from being a Trustee and must notify the Chair of any gifts received.
- Trustees should inform the Chair before accepting an invitation to speak on behalf of Newcastle u3a.
- Trustees are expected to always treat fellow executive committee members courteously and maintain a respectful attitude towards the opinions of others.
- Organisational, executive committee and individual confidentiality must always be respected.
- All executive committee members must satisfy the relevant regulatory body's requirements for being Trustees.

Requirements of a Trustee

- Trustees must read the Charity Commission leaflet CC3 entitled 'The Essential Trustee – what you need to know, what you need to do' which can be downloaded from the Charity Commission website.
- Trustees must comply with Charity Law and the requirements of the Charity Commission as regulator.
- Trustees are expected to know, follow and promote the Principles of the u3a movement (available on the u3a website) at every opportunity
